The Tender Offer Consideration for the Notes validly tendered (and not validly withdrawn) and accepted for purchase pursuant to this Offer is U.S.$1,000 per U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes.

Concurrently with the Offer, the Company is offering (the “Financing Transaction”) senior notes (the “New Notes”) pursuant to separate documents in a transaction that is exempt from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). The Company intends to use the proceeds from the Financing Transaction to (i) fund the Tender Offer and to pay related fees, accrued interest and expenses and (ii) repay outstanding short-term borrowings incurred to finance capital expenditures and working capital. If, following the consummation of the Offer, any Notes remain outstanding, the Company intends to use remaining net proceeds for the Redemption (as defined below). The remainder of the proceeds from the Financing Transaction will be used for general corporate purposes. The Offer is not an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy the New Notes.

Moreover, on the settlement date of the New Notes, the Company intends to issue a notice of redemption to Holders of any Notes that remain outstanding following the Offer (the “Redemption”). We intend to use the remaining net proceeds from the Financing Transaction to fund the Redemption. We intend to redeem the Notes that remain outstanding following the Offer on the date that is 30 days after the notice of redemption is issued (the “Redemption Date”) at a redemption price calculated in accordance with the terms of the Indenture governing the Notes (the “Redemption Price”). However, no assurance is made herein that the Redemption will be consummated following the Offer, and the Holders are granted no rights hereunder in connection with the Redemption. The Offer does not constitute a notice of redemption or an obligation to issue a notice of redemption.

We reserve the right, in our sole discretion, to waive or modify any one or more of the conditions to the Offer in whole or in part at any time on or before the date that any Notes are first accepted for purchase.

Your nominee or custodian should arrange for the DTC participant holding the Notes through its DTC account to tender those Notes in the Offer on or prior to the Expiration Date (or the Guaranteed Delivery Expiration Date for Notes delivered through the Guaranteed Delivery Procedure) in order to receive the Tender Offer Consideration.

If you hold your Notes through a broker or bank, your broker or bank may charge you a fee to tender your Notes.

There will be no letter of transmittal for the Offer.

The Role of a DTC Participant

A DTC participant may tender Notes only by taking the following actions on or prior to the Expiration Date in order to receive the Tender Offer Consideration:

- delivering Notes by means of book-entry transfer into the Tender Agent’s applicable DTC account; and
- transmitting a message to the Tender Agent through the facilities of DTC, specifying that the relevant participant has received and agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions set forth in this Offer to Purchase (an “agent’s message”).

By taking these actions with respect to the Offer, you and your custodian or nominee will be deemed to have agreed (i) to the terms and conditions of the Offer as set forth in this Offer to Purchase and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery and (ii) that the Company and the Tender Agent may enforce the terms and conditions against you and your custodian or nominee.

Notes should be sent to the Tender Agent and not to the Company, the Dealer Managers, the Information Agent or the Trustee. The Tender Agent will not accept any tender materials other than the DTC participant's agent's message.

Guaranteed Delivery Procedure

If a Holder desires to tender Notes pursuant to the Offer and (1) such Holder cannot comply with the procedure for book-entry transfer by the Expiration Date, or (2) such Holder cannot deliver any of the other required documents to the Tender Agent by the Expiration Date, such Holder may effect a tender of Notes pursuant to a guaranteed delivery (the “Guaranteed Delivery Procedure”) if all of the following are complied with:

- such tender is made by or through an “Eligible Guarantor Institution” (as such term is defined in Rule 17Ad-15 under the Securities Act) (an “Eligible Institution”);
- prior to the Expiration Date, the Tender Agent has received from such Eligible Institution, at the address of the Tender Agent set forth on the back cover of this Offer to Purchase, a properly completed and duly executed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery (delivered by facsimile transmission, mail or hand) in substantially the form provided by the Company setting forth the name and address of the DTC participant tendering Notes on behalf of the Holder(s) and the principal amount of Notes being tendered and representing that the Holder(s) own(s) such Notes and the tender is being made thereby and guaranteeing that, no later than the Guaranteed Delivery Expiration Date, a properly transmitted agent's message, together with confirmation of book-entry transfer of the Notes specified therein pursuant to the procedures set forth under the caption “The Offer—Terms of the Offer—Procedures for Tendering Notes” and any other required documents will be deposited by such Eligible Institution with the Tender Agent; and
- a properly transmitted agent's message, together with confirmation of book-entry transfer of the Notes tendered pursuant to the procedures set forth under the caption “—Procedures for Tendering Notes” and all other required documents are received by the Tender Agent no later than 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the second business day after the Expiration Date (which second business day will be September 16, 2025), unless extended.

The Eligible Institution that tenders Notes pursuant to the Guaranteed Delivery Procedure must (i) prior to the Expiration Date, comply with ATOP's procedures applicable to guaranteed delivery, and (ii) no later than the Guaranteed Delivery Expiration Date, deliver the agent's message, together with confirmation of book-entry transfer of the Notes specified therein, and any of the other required documents to the Tender Agent as specified above. Failure to do so could result in a financial loss to such Eligible Institution.

If a Holder is tendering Notes through ATOP pursuant to the Guaranteed Delivery Procedure, the Eligible Institution should not complete and deliver the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, but such Eligible Institution will be bound by the terms of this Offer to Purchase and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, as if it was executed and delivered by such Eligible Institution. Holders who hold Notes in book-entry form and tender pursuant to the Guaranteed Delivery Procedure should, prior to the Expiration Date, comply with ATOP's procedures applicable to guaranteed delivery.

THE DELIVERY OF SUCH NOTES TENDERED PURSUANT TO THE GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURE MUST BE MADE NO LATER THAN 5:00 P.M., NEW YORK CITY TIME, ON SEPTEMBER 16, 2025, UNLESS EXTENDED, WHICH IS THE GUARANTEED DELIVERY EXPIRATION DATE; PROVIDED, THAT ACCRUED INTEREST WILL CEASE TO ACCRUE ON THE SETTLEMENT DATE FOR ALL NOTES ACCEPTED IN THE OFFER THAT ARE TENDERED PURSUANT TO THE GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURE SET FORTH ABOVE AND UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL ADDITIONAL INTEREST ON THE TENDER OFFER CONSIDERATION BE PAID BY THE COMPANY AFTER THE SETTLEMENT DATE BY REASON OF ANY DELAY ON THE PART OF THE GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURE.

General Provisions

The method of delivery of Notes and all other documents or instructions including, without limitation, the agent's message, is at your risk. A tender will be deemed to have been received only when the Tender Agent receives both (i) a duly completed agent's message through the facilities of DTC at the Tender Agent's applicable DTC account and (ii) confirmation of book-entry transfer of the Notes into the Tender Agent's applicable DTC account.

We will in our reasonable discretion resolve all questions as to tenders, including whether the documentation is complete, the date and time of receipt of a tender, the propriety of execution and delivery of any document or instruction and other questions as to validity, form, eligibility or acceptability of any tender. We reserve the right to reject any tender not in proper form or otherwise not valid or the acceptance of which may, in the opinion of our counsel, be unlawful, or to waive any irregularities. Our interpretation of the terms and conditions of the Offer and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery will be final and binding. We will not be obligated to give any notice of any defects or irregularities in tenders and shall not incur any liability for failure to give that notice. The Tender Agent may, but shall not be obligated to, give notice to the tendering Holders of any irregularities or defects in tenders, and shall not incur any liability for any failure to give that notice. Notes will not be deemed to have been duly or validly tendered unless and until all defects and irregularities have been cured or waived to our satisfaction. All improperly tendered Notes will be returned without cost to the tendering Holder promptly after the Expiration Date, unless the irregularities and defects of that tender are timely cured or waived, by book-entry delivery through DTC to the accounts of the DTC participants.

There will be no letter of transmittal for the Offer. Notes being tendered must be delivered to the Tender Agent in accordance with the procedures described in this Offer to Purchase on or prior to the Expiration Date (or the Guaranteed Delivery Expiration Date for Notes delivered through the Guaranteed Delivery Procedure) in order to receive the Tender Offer Consideration.

Your Representation and Warranty; The Company's Acceptance Constitutes an Agreement

A tender of Notes under the procedures described above will constitute your acceptance of the terms and conditions of the Offer. In addition, by instructing your custodian or nominee to tender your Notes in the Offer, you are representing, warranting and agreeing that:

- you have received a copy of this Offer to Purchase and Notice of Guaranteed Delivery and agree to be bound by all the terms and conditions of the Offer;
- you have full power and authority to tender your Notes;

- you have assigned and transferred the Notes to the Tender Agent and irrevocably constitute and appoint the Tender Agent as your true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact to cause your Notes to be tendered in the Offer, that power of attorney being irrevocable and coupled with an interest;
- your Notes are being tendered, and will, when accepted by the Tender Agent, be free and clear of all charges, liens, restrictions, claims, equitable interests and encumbrances, other than the claims of a Holder under the express terms of the Offer; and
- you will, upon our request or the request of the Tender Agent, as applicable, execute and deliver any additional documents necessary or desirable to complete the tender of the Notes.

Your custodian or nominee, by delivering, or causing to be delivered, the Notes and the completed agent's message to the Tender Agent is representing and warranting that you, as owner of the Notes, have represented, warranted and agreed to each of the above.

Our acceptance for payment of Notes tendered under the Offer will constitute a binding agreement between you and us upon the terms and conditions of the Offer described in this Offer to Purchase.

Withdrawal of Tenders

You may withdraw validly tendered Notes at any time prior to the Withdrawal Date, but not afterwards. Tenders of Notes may not be withdrawn after the Withdrawal Date. If the Offer is terminated without us having purchased any Notes pursuant to the Offer, whether before or after the Expiration Date, we will promptly return the Notes tendered pursuant to the Offer to the tendering Holder.

For a withdrawal of Notes to be effective, the Tender Agent must receive, prior to the Withdrawal Date, either an agent's message or a written or faxed notice of withdrawal specifying the name of the tendering Holder, a description of the Notes to be withdrawn, the amount of Notes to be withdrawn and the number of the account at DTC to be credited with the withdrawn Notes and you must otherwise comply with DTC procedures. Any "notice of withdrawal" must be accompanied by evidence sufficient to the Tender Agent that the person withdrawing the tender has beneficial ownership of the Notes being withdrawn. If the Notes to be withdrawn have been delivered or otherwise identified to the Tender Agent, an agent's message or a written or faxed notice of withdrawal is effective immediately upon receipt by the Tender Agent of the agent's message or written or faxed notice of such withdrawal even if re-transfer by DTC book-entry is not immediately effected.

If you tendered your Notes through a custodian or nominee and wish to withdraw your Notes, you will need to make arrangements for withdrawal with your custodian or nominee. Your ability to withdraw the tender of your Notes will depend upon the terms of the arrangements you have made with your custodian or nominee and, if your custodian or nominee is not the DTC participant tendering those Notes, the arrangements between your custodian or nominee and such DTC participant, including any arrangements involving intermediaries between your custodian or nominee and such DTC participant.

Through DTC, the Tender Agent will return to tendering Holders all Notes in respect of which it has received valid notices of withdrawal prior to the Withdrawal Date promptly after it receives such notices.

Holders may not rescind their withdrawal of tenders of Notes, and any Notes properly withdrawn will thereafter be deemed not validly tendered for purposes of the Offer. Properly withdrawn Notes may, however, be re-tendered by again following one of the procedures described under “– Procedures for Tendering Notes” above at any time on or prior to the Expiration Date (or the Guaranteed Delivery Expiration Date for Notes delivered through the Guaranteed Delivery Procedure).

Holders can withdraw the tender of their Notes only in accordance with the foregoing procedures.

All questions as to the form and validity (including time of receipt) of any notice of withdrawal will be determined by us, in our sole discretion, which determination shall be final and binding. None of the Tender Agent, the Dealer Managers, the Information Agent, us or any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defect or irregularity in any notice of withdrawal or incur any liability for failure to give any such notification.

If we are delayed in our acceptance for purchase of, or payment for, any Notes or are unable to accept for purchase or pay for Notes pursuant to the Offer for any reason, then, without prejudice to our rights hereunder, tendered Notes may be retained by the Tender Agent on our behalf and may not be validly withdrawn (subject to Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act, which requires that we pay the consideration offered or return the Notes deposited by or on behalf of the Holders promptly after the termination or withdrawal of the Offer).

Conditions to the Offer

Notwithstanding any other term of the Offer, and in addition to (and not in limitation of) our right to extend and amend the Offer at any time, in our sole discretion, our obligation to accept for payment and, subject to any applicable rules and regulations of the SEC, including Rule 14e-1(c) under the Exchange Act, pay for, any Notes validly tendered (and not validly withdrawn) pursuant to the Offer is conditioned upon the following having occurred or been satisfied or having been waived by us:

(1) we shall have received, directly or indirectly, funding under the Financing Transaction in an amount sufficient to pay the Tender Offer Consideration for all of the tendered and accepted Notes, plus Accrued Interest for all tendered Notes accepted in the Offer, plus all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Offer (the “Financing Condition”);

(2) any of the following events or conditions shall not exist or occur and remain in effect and shall not be determined by us in our reasonable judgment to exist or have occurred:

(a) there shall have been threatened, instituted or be pending before any court, agency, authority or other tribunal any action, suit or proceeding by any government or governmental, regulatory or administrative agency or authority or by any other person, domestic or foreign, or any judgment, order or injunction entered, enforced or deemed applicable by any such court, authority, agency or tribunal, which challenges or seeks to make illegal, or to delay or otherwise directly or indirectly to restrain, prohibit or otherwise affect the making of the Offer, the purchase of Notes pursuant to the Offer, or is otherwise related in any manner to, or otherwise affects, the Offer;

(b) there shall have been any action threatened or taken, or any approval withheld, or any statute, rule or regulation invoked, proposed, sought, promulgated, enacted, entered, amended, enforced or deemed to be applicable to the Offer or the Company, by any government or governmental, regulatory or administrative authority or agency or tribunal, domestic or foreign, which, in our reasonable judgment, would or might directly or indirectly result in any of the consequences referred to in paragraph (a) above;

(c) we have determined in our reasonable judgment that the acceptance for payment of, or payment for, some or all of the Notes in the Offer would violate, conflict with or constitute a breach of any order, statute, law, rule, regulation, executive order, decree, or judgment of any court to which we may be bound or subject;

(d) at any time on or after the date of this Offer to Purchase, any change (or any condition, event or development involving a prospective change) shall have occurred or been threatened in the business, properties, assets, liabilities, capitalization, stockholders' equity, condition (financial or otherwise), operations, licenses, franchises, permits, permit applications, results of operations or prospects of the Company, which, in our reasonable judgment, is or may be materially adverse, or we will have become aware of any fact which, in our reasonable judgment, has or may have material adverse significance with respect to the Company;

(e) at any time on or after the date of this Offer to Purchase, there shall have occurred (i) any general suspension of trading in, or limitation on prices for, securities on any national securities exchange or market in the United States or Peru, (ii) a declaration of a banking moratorium or any suspension of payments in respect of banks in the United States or Peru, (iii) any limitation (whether or not mandatory) by any governmental authority or agency on, or other event which, in our reasonable judgment, might materially adversely affect the extension of credit by banks or other lending institutions in the United States or Peru, or (iv) commencement or declaration of a war, armed hostilities or other national or international calamity directly or indirectly involving the United States or Peru; or

(f) any approval, permit, authorization, consent or other action of any domestic or foreign governmental, administrative or regulatory agency, authority, tribunal or third party shall not have been obtained on terms satisfactory to us, which, in our reasonable judgment in any such case, and regardless of the circumstances (including any action or inaction by us or any of our affiliates) giving rise to any such condition, makes it inadvisable to proceed with the Offer and/or with such acceptance for payment or payment.

The foregoing conditions are for our sole benefit and the failure of any such condition to be satisfied may be asserted by us regardless of the circumstances, including any action or inaction by us, giving rise to any such failure and any such failure may be waived by us in whole or in part at any time and from time to time in our sole discretion. We may terminate the Offer for failure of any such condition in our sole discretion.

If any of the foregoing conditions to the Offer shall not have been satisfied or waived by us prior to the Expiration Date, we reserve the right, but will not be obligated, subject to applicable law, to:

- terminate the Offer and return Notes tendered pursuant to the Offer to tendering Holders;
- waive all unsatisfied conditions and accept for payment and purchase all Notes that are validly tendered prior to the Expiration Date;
- extend the Expiration Date and retain all tendered Notes until the Settlement Date or the expiration of the Offer; or
- otherwise amend the Offer.

The failure of us at any time to exercise any of the foregoing rights will not be deemed a waiver of any other right and each right will be deemed an ongoing right which may be asserted at any time and from time to time. See “–Extensions, Amendments, and Termination.” Subject to applicable law, we may also terminate the Offer at any time in our sole discretion.

Acceptance of Notes for Payment; Accrual of Interest

Acceptance of Notes for Payment. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer (including if the Offer is extended or amended, the terms and conditions of any such extension or amendment) and applicable law, we will accept for payment, and thereby purchase, all Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn pursuant to the Offer.

We will be deemed to have accepted for payment pursuant to the Offer and thereby have purchased, validly tendered Notes that are subject to the Offer, if, as and when we give oral or written notice to the Tender Agent of our acceptance of such Notes for purchase pursuant to the Offer. We will announce acceptance for payment of the Notes by issuing a press release. We will make payment or cause payment to be made for Notes accepted for payment pursuant to the Offer by deposit of funds with DTC.

We reserve the right, subject to applicable laws, to (1) keep the Offer open or extend the Withdrawal Date and/or the Expiration Date to a later date and time and (2) waive all conditions to the Offer.

We expressly reserve the right, in our sole discretion and subject to Rule 14e-1(c) under the Exchange Act, to delay acceptance for payment of, or payment for, Notes in order to comply, in whole or in part, with any applicable law. See “–Conditions to the Offer.” In all cases, payment by the Tender Agent to Holders of consideration for Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer will be made only after timely receipt by the Tender Agent of:

- confirmation of a book-entry transfer of such Notes into the Tender Agent’s account at DTC pursuant to the procedures set forth under “–Procedures for Tendering Notes;” and
- a duly completed agent’s message through the facilities of DTC.

If the Offer is terminated or withdrawn, or the Notes subject to the Offer are not accepted for payment, no consideration will be paid or payable to Holders of those Notes. If any tendered Notes are not purchased pursuant to the Offer for any reason, Notes tendered by book-entry transfer will be credited to the account maintained at DTC from which those Notes were delivered promptly following the Expiration Date or termination of the Offer.

We reserve the right to transfer or assign, in whole at any time or in part from time to time, to one or more of our affiliates, the right to purchase Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn pursuant to the Offer, but any such transfer or assignment will not relieve us of our obligations under the Offer or prejudice the rights of tendering Holders to receive consideration pursuant to the Offer.

Holders will not be obligated to pay brokerage fees or commissions or transfer taxes with respect to the purchase of the Notes pursuant to the Offer. If you hold Notes through a broker or bank, you should consult that institution as to whether it charges any service fees. We will pay certain fees and expenses of the Dealer Managers, the Information Agent and the Tender Agent in connection with the Offer. See “The Dealer Managers, Information Agent and Tender Agent.”

We will pay all transfer taxes applicable to the purchase and transfer of Notes pursuant to the Offer, except if the payment of the Tender Offer Consideration is being made to, or if certificates representing Notes for principal amounts not tendered or not accepted for payment are registered or issued in the name of, any person other than the registered Holder tendered thereby or if tendered certificates are registered in the name of any person other than the person(s) electronically transmitting acceptance through ATOP; then, in such event, the amount of any transfer taxes (whether imposed on the registered Holder(s) or such other person(s)) payable on account of the transfer to such person will be deducted from the Tender Offer Consideration, as the case may be, unless satisfactory evidence of the payment of such taxes or exemption therefrom is submitted.

Accrual of Interest. Holders who tender Notes that are accepted for payment pursuant to the Offer will receive a cash payment of accrued but unpaid interest on such Notes from the last interest payment date up to, but not including, the Settlement Date together with additional amounts thereon.

Under no circumstances will any additional interest or additional amounts thereon be payable because of any delay in the transmission of funds to the Holders of purchased Notes or otherwise.

Extensions, Amendments, and Termination

Subject to applicable law, we expressly reserve the right (but will not be obligated), at any time or from time to time, regardless of whether any of the events set forth in “–Conditions to the Offer” shall have occurred or shall have been determined by us to have occurred, to:

- waive any and all conditions to the Offer;
- extend the Withdrawal Date and/or the Expiration Date;
- otherwise amend the Offer in any respect; or
- terminate the Offer at any time, in each case, by giving written notice of such waiver, extension, amendment or termination to the Tender Agent. If we make a material change in the terms of the Offer or the information concerning the Offer or waive a material condition of the Offer, we will disseminate additional materials relating to the Offer and extend the Offer to the extent required by law. In addition, if we change the Tender Offer Consideration for the Notes, then we will extend the Expiration Date for the Offer, if necessary, to ensure that we comply with applicable law. We will publicly announce any waiver, extension, amendment or termination in the manner described under “– Announcements” below.

Irrespective of any amendment to the Offer, all Notes previously tendered pursuant to the Offer will remain subject to the Offer and may be accepted thereafter for payment by us.

Announcements

If we are required to make an announcement relating to an extension of the Expiration Date or a waiver, amendment or termination of the Offer, we will do so as promptly as practicable, and in the case of an extension of the Expiration Date, no later than 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the next business day after the previously scheduled Expiration Date. Although we may choose to issue an announcement of this type in some other manner, we will have no obligation to do so other than by issuing a press release.

CERTAIN CONSIDERATIONS

You should review carefully the considerations described below, as well as the other information contained in this Offer to Purchase, before deciding whether to tender your Notes in the Offer.

Position of the Company Concerning the Offer

None of us, our board of directors (or equivalent governing body), the Dealer Managers, the Information Agent, the Tender Agent or the Trustee or any Paying Agent or Transfer Agent makes any recommendation to any Holder whether to tender or refrain from tendering any or all of such Holder's Notes and none of them has authorized any person to make any such recommendation. Holders are urged to evaluate carefully all information in this Offer to Purchase and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, consult their own legal, investment and tax advisors and make their own decisions whether to tender Notes, and, if so, the principal amount of Notes to tender.

Effect of the Offer on Holders of Notes Tendered and Accepted in the Offer

If your Notes are tendered and accepted (and not validly withdrawn) on or prior to the Expiration Date, you will receive the Tender Offer Consideration plus any Accrued Interest, per U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes tendered and accepted, but you will give up all rights and benefits associated with ownership of such Notes. See "The Offer— Terms of the Offer." Tendered Notes may be withdrawn at any time on or prior to the Withdrawal Date.

Limitations on Ability to Withdraw Notes

Tendered Notes may be withdrawn at any time on or prior to the Withdrawal Date.

The Offer May Adversely Affect the Market Value and Reduce the Liquidity of any Trading Market for the Notes

A debt security with a smaller outstanding principal amount available for trading, which is sometimes referred to as a smaller "float," will generally command a lower price than would a comparable debt security with a greater float. Therefore, the market price for Notes not purchased, to the extent we ultimately do not redeem these (including through the Redemption), may be adversely affected to the extent that the amount of Notes purchased pursuant to the Offer reduces the float of the Notes. The reduced float may also tend to make the trading price more volatile. Moreover, we cannot assure you that any trading market will exist for the Notes following the Offer. The extent of the public market for the Notes, if any, following consummation of the Offer would depend upon whether or not we consummate the Redemption, the number of other holders that remain at such time, the interest in maintaining markets in the Notes on the part of securities firms and other factors.

Conditions to the Consummation of the Offer

The consummation of the Offer is subject to certain conditions, including the Financing Condition, but is not contingent upon any minimum principal amount of Notes being tendered. See "The Offer— Conditions to the Offer." There can be no assurance that such conditions will be met or that, in the event the Offer is not consummated, the market value and liquidity of the Notes will not be materially adversely affected.

Treatment of Notes Not Tendered and Purchased in the Offer; Redemption

Notes not tendered and purchased in the Offer will remain outstanding and will continue to accrue interest. The terms and conditions governing the Notes, including the covenants and other protective provisions contained in the Indenture governing the Notes, will remain unchanged. No amendments to the Indenture are being sought.

On the Redemption Date, we intend to redeem any Notes that remain outstanding at the Redemption Price pursuant to the terms of the Indenture. However, no assurance is made herein that the Redemption will be consummated following the Offer, and the Holders are granted no rights hereunder in connection with the Redemption. The Offer does not constitute a notice of redemption or an obligation to issue a notice of redemption.

TAXATION

The following discussion is a summary of certain material Peruvian and United States federal income tax consequences of the disposition of the Notes pursuant to the Offer. This summary does not describe all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to you or your situation, particularly if you are subject to special tax rules. You should consult your own tax advisors about the tax consequences of a disposition of Notes pursuant to the Offer, including the relevance to your particular situation of the considerations discussed below, as well as of state, local and other tax laws. This summary is for general information purposes only and is based upon tax laws of Peru and the United States as in effect on the date of this Offer to Purchase, which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, and to differing interpretations. Each Holder should consult its tax advisor with respect to Peru and U.S. federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the Offer under the laws of the jurisdictions that apply to them.

Certain Peruvian Tax Consequences

The following is a general summary of the principal Peruvian tax consequences that would arise as a result of the acceptance of the Offer by holders of the Notes who are deemed non-Peruvian holders.

The term “non-Peruvian holder” means the holder or beneficial owner of a Note, as applicable, who is not a Peruvian holder. For purposes of this section, “Peruvian holder” means the holder or beneficial owner, as applicable, of a Note who, for Peruvian income tax purposes, is treated as a resident of Peru. A legal entity is treated as a Peruvian tax resident if it has been incorporated in Peru, or if it is deemed to be a permanent establishment in Peru of a foreign entity. An individual is deemed to be a Peruvian tax resident if such individual: (i) is a Peruvian citizen and has a regular residence in Peru, or (ii) is not a Peruvian citizen but has resided in Peru for at least 183 calendar days during any twelve-month period.

This summary does not purport to address all Peruvian tax consequences that may be applicable or relevant to particular non-Peruvian holders.

This summary is based on the Peruvian tax law and corresponding regulations in effect as of the date of this Offer to Purchase, all of which are subject to change or to be interpreted in a new or different manner than that set forth herein, which could affect the continued validity of this general summary.

This summary does not constitute tax advice, does not address all of the Peruvian tax consequences that may be applicable to specific holders of the Notes and does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to accept the Offer. Furthermore, this summary does not address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any taxing jurisdiction other than Peru.

Holders of the Notes should consult with their own tax advisors on to the particular consequences that will arise as a result of accepting the Offer under the tax laws of Peru, as well as the tax laws of any other jurisdiction or under any applicable double taxation treaty to which Peru is a party which is in effect.

Income Tax

Payment of interest

In the case of non-Peruvian holders, interest paid on debt of Peruvian issuers is subject to income tax withholding, which generally would be imposed at a rate of 30%. However, interest paid on bonds and other debentures issued by Peruvian issuers is subject to income tax withholding at a preferential rate of 4.99%; provided that the following conditions are met: (i) the non-Peruvian holders and the issuer are not considered to be related parties pursuant to the Peruvian Income Tax Law and (ii) in the case of non-Peruvian holders that are individuals, the interest (a) does not derive from a transaction from or through a low or no-tax jurisdiction or a non-cooperative jurisdiction; and (b) is not subject to a preferential tax regime.

Thus, subject to the above requirements, interest paid by the Company to non-Peruvian holders, including amounts with respect to accrued but unpaid interest payable pursuant to the Offer, will be subject to a withholding income tax in Peru at a rate of 4.99%. However, the Company will assume the economic burden of such income tax and pay an amount equivalent to the aforementioned withholding directly to the Superintendencia Nacional de Aduanas y de Administración Tributaria (the “SUNAT”), so that the amounts received by non-Peruvian holders will be equal to the amounts that would have been received by non-Peruvian holders had there been no income tax obligation.

Purchase Price of the Notes

The Tender Offer Consideration received by a non-Peruvian holder pursuant to the Offer, as a sum paid in excess of the principal, is deemed to be Peruvian-source income and it will be subject to withholding at the income tax rate of either: (i) to the income tax rate applicable to interest paid on bonds, subject to the treatment set forth in “Payment of Interest,” provided that premium is characterized as interest, or (ii) 30%, provided that premium is characterized as capital gain. The Company will assume the economic burden of such income tax and pay an amount equivalent to the aforementioned withholding directly to the SUNAT, so that the amounts received by non-Peruvian holders will be equal to the amounts that would have been received had there been no income tax obligation. Non-Peruvian holders of the Notes should consult an independent tax advisor regarding the specific Peruvian income tax considerations of disposing of the Notes.

Value Added Tax

Interest paid on the Notes is not subject to Peruvian value added tax (Impuesto General a las Ventas, or “VAT”).

The sale, exchange or disposition of the Notes is not subject to VAT.

Financial Transaction Tax (“FTT”)

Deposits in and withdrawal from accounts held in Peruvian banks or other Peruvian financial institutions, whether in Peruvian or foreign currency, are levied with FTT at a rate of 0.005%. Therefore, FTT will be imposed on: (i) any interest received on the Notes; and (ii) any amount received upon the purchase of the Notes; if deposited in or withdrawn from a Peruvian bank account, as the case may be.

Certain United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

This summary is based upon the provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended to the date hereof (the “Code”), the applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations promulgated and proposed thereunder, judicial authority and current administrative rulings and practice, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. The following discussion is limited to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Offer that are relevant to a U.S. Holder (as defined below) and assumes that the Notes are held as capital assets (as defined in Section 1221 of the Code) by the holders thereof. A “U.S. Holder” for purposes of this discussion means a holder of a Note who or which is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (1) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States, (2) a corporation, or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, that is created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (3) an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source or (4) a trust (i) if a U.S. court is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (ii) that has a valid election in effect to be treated as a U.S. person.

This discussion does not purport to deal with all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that might be relevant to particular holders in light of their personal circumstances or status, nor does it discuss the U.S. federal income tax consequences to certain types of holders subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws (for example, banks and other financial institutions, insurance companies, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, retirement plans and other tax-deferred accounts, mutual funds, individual holders who are former citizens or long-term residents of the United States, persons holding the Notes in connection with a trade or business conducted outside of the United States, brokers, dealers in securities or currencies, traders in securities that elect mark-to-market tax accounting for their securities holdings, partnerships or other pass-through entities and investors in such entities, tax-exempt organizations, persons holding the Notes as part of a “straddle,” “hedge,” “wash sale,” “constructive sale,” “conversion,” “integrated” or other similar transaction, investors using the accrual method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes and who are required to recognize income for such purposes no later than when such income is taken into account in an applicable financial statement, or U.S. Holders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar). Moreover, this discussion does not address the effect of any applicable state, local or foreign tax consequences or the alternative minimum tax, the Medicare tax on net investment income, or any federal non-income tax consequences (such as federal estate or gift tax consequences). Furthermore, this discussion does not address tendering U.S. Holders of Notes that also purchase New Notes pursuant to the Financing Transaction. No ruling will be sought from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) with respect to any statement made or conclusion reached in this discussion, and there can be no assurance that the IRS would not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of those set forth below.

If a partnership or other entity classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds Notes, the tax treatment of a partner of such partnership generally will depend on the status of the partner and on the activities of the partnership. Each partner should consult its own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the disposition of the Notes by a partnership in which the partner holds an interest.

Tax Consequences to Tendering U.S. Holders

Disposition of Notes Pursuant to the Offer

Subject to the discussions of the market discount rules set forth below, a U.S. Holder that receives cash in exchange for Notes pursuant to the Offer will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized on the disposition of the Notes pursuant to the Offer and the U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in the Notes tendered and accepted. The amount realized generally will equal the amount of cash received for such Notes (other than amounts attributable to Accrued Interest, which amounts will be treated as ordinary interest income to the extent not previously included in income). A U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in a Note generally will equal the cost of such Note to such holder, increased by any amounts included in income by the U.S. Holder as market discount pursuant to an election (as described below) and reduced (but not below zero) by any amortizable bond premium which the U.S. Holder has previously amortized. Amortizable bond premium generally is defined as the excess of a U.S. Holder’s tax basis in a Note immediately after its acquisition by such U.S. Holder over the Note’s stated redemption price at maturity. Subject to the market discount rules discussed below, such gain or loss will be capital gain or loss. Capital gains of non-corporate U.S. Holders derived with respect to Notes held for more than one year are generally eligible to be taxed at reduced rates as long-term capital gains for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors with regards to the applicability of the amortizable bond premium and market discount rules to their particular situation.

Amounts treated as interest realized on a sale of a Note pursuant to the Offer generally will be treated as foreign source income, whereas any amount of gain or loss realized on the sale of a Note pursuant to the Offer generally will be treated as U.S. source gain or loss. Consequently, a U.S. Holder may not be able to claim a credit for any Peruvian tax imposed upon gain from the sale of a Note unless such credit can be applied (subject to applicable limitations) against U.S. federal income tax due on other income treated as derived from foreign sources.

In addition, U.S. Treasury regulations issued in December 2021 also impose new requirements for foreign taxes to qualify as creditable taxes for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the application of these requirements to the Peruvian withholding tax on amounts treated as interest realized is uncertain and we have not determined whether these requirements have been met. However, a recent notice from the IRS provides temporary relief from such U.S. Treasury regulations by allowing taxpayers to apply a modified version of the U.S. Treasury regulations for taxable years ending before the date that a notice or guidance withdrawing or modifying the temporary relief is issued (or any later date specified in such notice or other guidance), provided that the taxpayer consistently applies such modified version of the U.S. Treasury regulations and complies with specific requirements set forth in a previous notice. In the case of a U.S. Holder that consistently elects to apply the modified version of the U.S. Treasury regulations in the manner described in the preceding sentence, taxes imposed by Peru on amounts treated as interest realized upon the sale of a Note pursuant to the Offer will generally qualify as potentially creditable taxes. However, a U.S. Holder will generally be denied a foreign tax credit for foreign taxes imposed upon the sale of a Note where it does not meet a minimum holding period requirement. The U.S. Treasury Department and the IRS are also considering proposing amendments to the U.S. Treasury regulations. The rules governing the foreign tax credit are complex and U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the availability of the foreign tax credit under their particular circumstances.

Market Discount

The “market discount” on a Note is the excess of the stated redemption price at maturity of the Note over the U.S. Holder’s tax basis in the Note immediately after its acquisition (other than at original issue). If such market discount is less than a statutorily defined de minimis amount, then it is treated as zero. If such market discount equals or exceeds a statutorily defined de minimis amount, any gain recognized on the disposition of the Note pursuant to the Offer will be treated as ordinary income, rather than capital gain, to the extent of any market discount on the Notes that has accrued during but has not been included in the income of the period that the tendering U.S. Holder held the tendered Notes, unless the U.S. Holder has made an election to include market discount in income as it accrues, in which case the U.S. Holder will not need to take into account any additional market discount with respect to the sale of a Note pursuant to the Offer. Market discount will be treated as accruing ratably over the period from the date of the U.S. Holder’s acquisition of the Note to the maturity date of the Note or, at the election of the U.S. Holder, on a constant yield basis.

Tax Consequences to Non-Tendering U.S. Holders

A non-tendering U.S. Holder will not recognize any income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the consummation of the Offer, and will have the same holding period and adjusted tax basis with respect to its Notes as immediately before the Offer.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

In general, payments on the sale of Notes pursuant to the Offer by a U.S. paying agent or other U.S. intermediary (including payments in respect of interest and principal) may be subject to information reporting unless the U.S. Holder is an exempt recipient and establishes this fact if required. Backup withholding may apply to such payments unless the U.S. Holder (i) is an exempt recipient and establishes this fact if required, or (ii) provides an accurate taxpayer identification number and certifies that it is a U.S. person and that no loss of exemption from backup withholding has occurred. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a credit against a U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, and may entitle the U.S. Holder to a refund, provided the requisite information is timely furnished to the IRS.

THE FOREGOING DISCUSSION OF CERTAIN UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE OFFER IS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND IS NOT TAX ADVICE. ACCORDINGLY, EACH HOLDER OF NOTES SHOULD CONSULT ITS TAX ADVISOR WITH RESPECT TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE OFFER, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX LAWS.
