AmeriGas Partners, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (“we,” “our,” “us” or the “Company”), is offering to purchase for cash any and all of the Notes, upon the terms and subject to the conditions described in the Offers to Purchase and in this Letter of Transmittal. Capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein have the meaning given to them in the Offers to Purchase.

Holders of Notes that are tendering by book-entry transfer to the account of D.F. King & Co., Inc., the depository and information agent for the Tender Offers (“DFK”), at the Depository Trust Company (“DTC”) may execute their tender through DTC’s Automated Tender Offer Program (“ATOP”) in accordance with DTC’s ATOP procedures. DTC will then verify the acceptance, execute a book-entry delivery to DFK’s account at DTC and send an agent’s message to DFK for its acceptance. Delivery of the agent’s message by DTC (a “Book-entry Confirmation”) will satisfy the terms of the Tender Offers in lieu of execution and delivery of the Letter of Transmittal by the participant identified in the agent’s message. Accordingly, this Letter of Transmittal need not be completed by a Holder tendering through ATOP.

Holders of Notes may use the guaranteed delivery procedures described in the Offers to Purchase under “The Terms of the Tender Offers—Procedures for Tendering Notes—Guaranteed Delivery Procedures” to tender their Notes if (1) their Notes are not immediately available, (2) time will not permit the Holder’s Notes or other required documents to reach DFK before the Expiration Time or (3) the procedures for book-entry transfer cannot be completed on a timely basis.

For a description of certain procedures to be followed in order to tender Notes (including through DTC’s ATOP), see “The Terms of the Tender Offers—Procedures for Tendering Notes” in the Offers to Purchase and the Instructions to this Letter of Transmittal.

Questions and requests for assistance or for additional copies of the Offers to Purchase and this Letter of Transmittal should be directed to DFK.

PLEASE READ THE ACCOMPANYING INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Subject to the terms of the Offers to Purchase, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and this Letter of Transmittal, the undersigned hereby tenders to the Company the aggregate principal amounts of the series of Notes indicated above. Subject to, and effective upon, the acceptance by the Company for purchase of the Notes tendered in accordance with this Letter of Transmittal, the undersigned hereby sells, assigns and transfers to, or upon the order of, the Company, all right, title and interest in and to the Notes tendered hereby.

The undersigned hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints DFK its true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact (with full knowledge that DFK also acts as an agent of the Company) with respect to the tendered Notes, with full power of substitution and resubstitution (such power of attorney being deemed to be an irrevocable power coupled with an interest) to (i) transfer ownership of such Notes on the account books maintained by DTC, together with all accompanying evidences of transfer and authenticity, to, or upon the order of, the Company, (ii) present such Notes for transfer on the books of the registrar for the Notes and (iii) receive all benefits and otherwise exercise all rights of beneficial ownership of such Notes, all in accordance with the terms of the Offers to Purchase. The power of attorney granted in this paragraph shall be deemed irrevocable and coupled with an interest.

The undersigned acknowledges and agrees that a tender of Notes pursuant to any of the procedures described in the Offers to Purchase and in the instructions hereto and an acceptance of such Notes by the Company will constitute a binding agreement between the undersigned and the Company upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offers to Purchase. For purposes of the Offers to Purchase, the undersigned understands that the Company will be deemed to have accepted for purchase validly tendered Notes that have not been validly withdrawn.

The undersigned understands that tenders of Notes made prior to the Expiration Time may be validly withdrawn, as applicable, from the Tender Offers any time at or prior to the Expiration Time, subject to compliance with DTC procedures, by either a validly transmitted agent's message through DTC's ATOP or by written or facsimile notice. Such notice must (1) specify the name of the Holder who tendered the Notes to be withdrawn and, if different, the name of the DTC participant for whose account such Notes were tendered, along with the number of the account at DTC to be credited with the withdrawn Notes; (2) contain a description of the Notes to be withdrawn (including the principal amount to be withdrawn); (3) contain a statement that such Holder is withdrawing such Notes; and (4) be signed by the Holder of such Notes in the same manner as the original signature on any Letter of Transmittal, including any required signature guarantees, or, in the case of Notes validly tendered by a DTC participant through DTC's ATOP, be signed by such participant in the same manner as the participant's name is listed on the applicable agent's message. The signature on the notice of withdrawal must be guaranteed by a Medallion Signature Guarantor (as defined in the Offers to Purchase) unless such Notes have been tendered for the account of an Eligible Institution (as defined below). The undersigned understands that tenders of Notes may not be withdrawn or revoked after the Expiration Time. Accordingly, all tenders of Notes will be irrevocable after the Expiration Time unless the Company grants additional withdrawal rights under the circumstances described in the Offers to Purchase under "The Terms of the Tender Offers—Withdrawal of Tenders; Absence of Appraisal Rights."

The undersigned hereby represents and warrants to the Company and to DFK that (a) the undersigned has received the Offers to Purchase, agrees to the terms and conditions contained therein and, if the Tender Offers is consummated, agrees that the purchase of the Notes in the Tender Offers shall be on the terms and conditions contained therein, (b) the undersigned has full power and authority to tender, sell, assign and transfer the Notes tendered hereby and (c) when such tendered Notes are accepted for purchase and paid for by the Company pursuant to the Tender Offers, the Company will acquire good title thereto, free and clear of all liens, restrictions, charges and encumbrances and not subject to any adverse claim or right. The undersigned will, upon request, execute and deliver any additional documents deemed by DFK or by the Company to be necessary or desirable to complete the sale, assignment and transfer of the Notes tendered hereby.

In consideration for the purchase of Notes pursuant to the Tender Offers, the undersigned hereby releases and discharges the Company from any and all claims the undersigned may have now, or may have in the future, arising out of, or related to, the Notes, including, without limitation, any claims that the undersigned is entitled to receive additional principal or interest payments with respect to the Notes or to participate in any redemption or defeasance of the Notes.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Offers to Purchase, the undersigned understands that the Company's obligation to accept for purchase and to pay for the Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn pursuant to the Tender Offers is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including the Financing Condition, as described in the Offers to Purchase. The undersigned understands that the Tender Offers are not conditioned on any minimum amount of Notes being tendered.

The Company also reserves the right, in its sole discretion and subject to applicable law, to (a) extend the Expiration Time to a later date and time, (b) waive any of the conditions to the Tender Offers or (c) terminate or otherwise amend the Tender Offers to the extent any or all of the conditions to the Tender Offers are not satisfied or waived, in each case as described in the Offers to Purchase.

No authority conferred or agreed to be conferred by this Letter of Transmittal, or by tender of the Notes through book-entry transfer, shall be affected by, and all such authority shall survive, the death or incapacity of the undersigned, and any obligation of the undersigned hereunder, or incurred in connection with the undersigned's tender of its Notes, shall be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators, trustees in bankruptcy, personal and legal representatives, successors and assigns of the undersigned.

All questions as to the form of all documents and validity, eligibility (including time of receipt), acceptance for payment and withdrawal of tendered Notes will be determined by the Company in its sole discretion, and such determination shall be final and binding.

The undersigned hereby request(s) that any Notes representing principal amounts not tendered or not accepted for purchase be issued in the name(s) of, and be tendered by book-entry transfer, by credit to the account at DTC designated herein. The undersigned hereby request(s) that any checks for payment to be made in respect of the Notes tendered hereby be issued to the order of, and delivered to, the undersigned.

INSTRUCTIONS FORMING PART OF THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE TENDER OFFERS

1. Guarantee of Signatures.

All signatures on this Letter of Transmittal must be guaranteed by a firm that is a member of a registered national securities exchange or the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”), or by a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States that is a participant in an approved Signature Guarantee Medallion Program (each of the foregoing being an “Eligible Institution”) unless (i) this Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered Holder(s) of Notes (which term, for purposes of this document, shall include any participant in the DTC system whose name appears on a security position listing as the owner of Notes) tendered hereby or (ii) such Notes are tendered for the account of an Eligible Institution. See Instruction 4.

2. Delivery of Letter of Transmittal.

This Letter of Transmittal is to be completed, or an electronic confirmation pursuant to DTC’s ATOP (together with a Book-entry Confirmation) is to be transmitted, by Holders for tenders made pursuant to the procedures for tenders by book-entry transfer set forth in the Offers to Purchase under the caption “The Terms of the Tender Offers—Procedures for Tendering Notes.” A properly completed and duly executed Letter of Transmittal (or manually signed facsimile), or an electronic confirmation pursuant to DTC’s ATOP (together with a Book-entry Confirmation), and any other required documents, must be timely received by DFK at the appropriate address set forth above. Pursuant to such procedure: (i) such tender must be made by or through an Eligible Institution and (ii) DFK must timely receive from such Eligible Institution a properly completed Letter of Transmittal (or a manually signed facsimile) or an electronic confirmation pursuant to DTC’s ATOP, all as described in the Offers to Purchase under the caption “The Terms of the Tender Offers—Procedures for Tendering Notes.”

THE METHOD OF DELIVERY OF THIS LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL AND ALL OTHER REQUIRED DOCUMENTS, INCLUDING DELIVERY THROUGH DTC’S ATOP, IS AT THE OPTION AND SOLE RISK OF THE TENDERING HOLDER, AND THE DELIVERY WILL BE DEEMED MADE ONLY WHEN ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY DFK. IF DELIVERY IS BY MAIL, REGISTERED MAIL WITH RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED, PROPERLY INSURED, IS RECOMMENDED. IN ALL CASES, SUFFICIENT TIME SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO ENSURE TIMELY DELIVERY.

If you are a holder of Notes and desire to tender your Notes, and (1) these Notes are not immediately available, (2) time will not permit your Notes or other required documents to reach DFK before the Expiration Time or (3) the procedures for book-entry transfer cannot be completed on a timely basis, you may still tender your Notes in the Tender Offers if:

(a) you tender through a member firm of a registered national securities exchange or of FINRA, a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States or an eligible guarantor institution within the meaning of Rule 17Ad-15 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”);

(b) before the Expiration Time, DFK receives (i) a properly completed and duly executed Letter of Transmittal (or facsimile thereof), with any required signature guarantee, or an Agent’s Message in lieu of the Letter of Transmittal, and (ii) a properly completed and duly executed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, substantially in the form provided by us, with your name and address as holder of the Notes and the amount of Notes tendered, stating that the tender is being made by that letter and notice and guaranteeing that by the close of business on June 28, 2016, the second business day after the Expiration Time, the certificates for all the Notes tendered, in proper form for transfer, or a Book-entry Confirmation with an agent’s message, as the case may be, and any other documents required by the Letter of Transmittal will be deposited by the eligible institution with DFK; and

(c) the certificates for all your tendered Notes in proper form for transfer or a Book-entry Confirmation as the case may be, and all other documents required by this Letter of Transmittal are received by DFK by the close of business on June 28, 2016, the second business day after the Expiration Time.

No alternative, conditional or contingent tenders will be accepted. Tenders of Notes will be accepted pursuant to the Tender Offers only in principal amounts equal to minimum denominations of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof. By execution and delivery of this Letter of Transmittal (or a facsimile hereof), or by electronic confirmation pursuant to DTC's ATOP (together with the Book-entry Confirmation), all tendering Holders of the Notes waive any right to receive any notice of the acceptance of their Notes for purchase. The entire aggregate principal amount represented by the Notes delivered to DFK will be deemed to have been tendered. If the entire principal amount of the Notes is not tendered or not accepted for purchase, the principal amount of such Notes not tendered or not accepted for purchase will be credited to the account at DTC designated herein and will remain outstanding.

Notes tendered may only be withdrawn from the Tender Offers pursuant to the procedure and subject to the terms set forth under the caption "The Terms of the Tender Offers—Withdrawal of Tenders and Absence of Appraisal Rights" in the Offers to Purchase and as described below.

3. Withdrawal of Tenders.

A tender of Notes pursuant to the Tender Offers may be withdrawn from the Tender Offers any time at or prior to the Expiration Time, but not afterwards. If the Tender Offers are terminated without the Company's having purchased any Notes pursuant to such tender offer, whether before or after the Expiration Time, the Company will promptly return the Notes tendered pursuant to such tender offer to the tendering Holder without cost to such Holder. Any returned Notes will remain outstanding.

For a withdrawal of Notes from the Tender Offers to be valid, DFK must timely receive, subject to compliance with DTC procedures, either an agent's message through ATOP or by written or facsimile notice. Such notice must (1) specify the name of the Holder who tendered the Notes to be withdrawn and, if different, the name of the DTC participant for whose account such Notes were tendered, along with the number of the account at DTC to be credited with the withdrawn Notes; (2) contain a description of the Notes to be withdrawn (including the principal amount to be withdrawn); (3) contain a statement that such Holder is withdrawing such Notes; and (4) be signed by the Holder of such Notes in the same manner as the original signature on any Letter of Transmittal, including any required signature guarantees, or, in the case of Notes validly tendered by a DTC participant through DTC's ATOP, be signed by such participant in the same manner as the participant's name is listed on the applicable agent's message. The signature on the notice of withdrawal must be a Medallion Signature Guarantor unless such Notes have been tendered for the account of an Eligible Institution. If the Notes to be withdrawn from the Tender Offers have been delivered or otherwise identified to DFK, an agent's message or a signed notice of withdrawal is effective immediately upon receipt by DFK of the agent's message or written or faxed notice of such withdrawal even if re-transfer by DTC book-entry is not immediately effected.

If a beneficial owner tendered its Notes in the Tender Offers through a custodian or nominee and wishes to withdraw its Notes, it will need to make arrangements for withdrawal and revocation with its custodian or nominee. The ability of a beneficial owner to withdraw a tender of its Notes will depend upon the terms of the arrangements it has made with its custodian or nominee and, if its custodian or nominee is not the DTC participant tendering those Notes, the arrangements between its custodian or nominee and such DTC participant, including any arrangements involving intermediaries between its custodian or nominee and such DTC participant.

Through DTC, DFK will return to tendering Holders all Notes in respect of which it has received valid withdrawal and revocation instructions at or prior to the Expiration Time promptly after it receives such instructions.

Holders may not rescind their withdrawal of tenders of Notes, and any Notes properly withdrawn will thereafter be deemed not validly tendered for purposes of the Tender Offers. Validly withdrawn Notes may, however, be retendered by again following one of the procedures described in the Offers to Purchase under the caption “The Terms of the Tender Offers—Procedures for Tendering Notes” at any time at or prior to the Expiration Time, as applicable.

Holders can withdraw the tender of their Notes from the Tender Offers only in accordance with the foregoing procedures.

All questions as to the form of documents and validity, eligibility (including time of receipt), acceptance for payment and withdrawal of tendered Notes will be determined by the Company in its sole discretion, and its determination will be final and binding. The Company reserves the absolute right to reject any and all tenders of Notes that it determines are not in proper form or for which the acceptance for payment or payment may, in the opinion of its counsel, be unlawful. The Company also reserves the absolute right in its sole discretion to waive any of the conditions of the Tender Offers or any defect or irregularity in the tender of Notes of any particular Holder, whether or not similar conditions, defects or irregularities are waived in the case of other Holders. The Company’s interpretation of the terms and conditions of the Tender Offers (including the instructions in the Letter of Transmittal) will be final and binding. None of the Company, its board of directors, the Dealer Manager, DFK, U.S. Bank, N.A., as trustee for the Notes (the “Trustee”), their respective affiliates or any other person will be under any duty to give notice of any defects or irregularities in tenders or any notices of withdrawal or will incur any liability for failure to give any such notice.

If the Company is delayed in its acceptance for purchase of, or payment for, any validly tendered Notes pursuant to the Tender Offers or is unable to accept for purchase or pay for any validly tendered Notes pursuant to the Tender Offers for any reason, then, without prejudice to the Company’s rights hereunder, but subject to applicable law, validly tendered Notes may be retained by DFK on behalf of the Company (subject to Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act, which requires that an offeror pay the consideration offered or return the securities deposited by or on behalf of the holders promptly after the termination or withdrawal of a tender offer).

4. Signatures on Letter of Transmittal.

If this Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered Holder(s) of the Notes tendered hereby, the signature(s) must correspond exactly with the name(s) as written on the face of the certificate(s) without alteration, enlargement or any change whatsoever. If this Letter of Transmittal is signed by a participant in DTC whose name is shown as the owner of the Notes tendered hereby, the signature must correspond exactly with the name shown on the Note position listing as the owner of the Notes.

If any of the Notes tendered hereby are registered in the name of two or more Holders, all such Holders must sign this Letter of Transmittal. If any of the Notes tendered hereby are registered in different names, it will be necessary to complete, sign and submit as many separate Letters of Transmittal as there are different registrations of such Notes.

If this Letter of Transmittal is signed by a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, attorney-in-fact, agent, officer of a corporation or other person acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, such person should so indicate when signing, and proper evidence satisfactory to the Company of such person’s authority to so act must be submitted.

When this Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered Holders listed and transmitted hereby, no endorsements of Notes or separate instruments of transfer are required unless payment is to be made, or Certificates for Notes not tendered or purchased are to be issued, to a person other than the registered Holders, in which case signatures on such Notes or instruments of transfer must be guaranteed by a Medallion Signature Guarantor.

5. Questions and Requests for Assistance or Additional Copies.

Questions or requests for assistance may be directed to DFK at the applicable address and telephone number set forth on the back cover of this Letter of Transmittal. Requests for additional copies of the Offers to Purchase, this Letter of Transmittal, the IRS Form W-9 and the IRS Form W-9 instructions may be directed to DFK, and copies will be furnished promptly at the Company's expense. Holders of Notes may also contact their brokers, dealers, commercial banks, trust companies, custodians or other nominees, if applicable, for assistance concerning the Tender Offers.

6. Taxpayer Identification Number.

Please refer to the Section titled "Procedures for Tendering Notes—Backup Withholding" and "Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations" in the Offers to Purchase for information about completing a IRS Form W-9 or an appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable.

FAILURE TO COMPLETE AN IRS FORM W-9 OR APPROPRIATE IRS FORM W-8 MAY RESULT IN U.S. FEDERAL BACKUP WITHHOLDING ON ANY PAYMENTS MADE TO YOU PURSUANT TO THE TENDER OFFERS.

7. Transfer Taxes.

The Company will pay or cause to be paid all transfer taxes with respect to the purchase of any Notes. If, however, payment is to be made to, or if Notes not tendered or purchased are to be registered in the name of or delivered to, any persons other than the registered Holders, or if tendered Notes are registered in the name of any persons other than the persons signing this Letter of Transmittal, the amount of any transfer taxes (whether imposed on the registered Holder or such other person) payable on account of the transfer to such other person will be deducted from the payment unless satisfactory evidence of the payment of such taxes or exemption therefrom is submitted.

8. Waiver of Conditions.

The Company expressly reserves the right before the settlement date to waive (or to seek to waive) any of the conditions to the Tender Offers, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time. As set forth in the Offers to Purchase, subject to applicable law and the terms of the Tender Offers, the Company may at any time and from time to time waive any condition to the Tender Offers and accept all Notes previously tendered pursuant to the Tender Offers.

THE METHOD OF DELIVERY OF THIS LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL AND ALL OTHER REQUIRED DOCUMENTS, INCLUDING DELIVERY THROUGH DTC'S ATOP, IS AT THE OPTION AND SOLE RISK OF THE TENDERING HOLDER, AND THE DELIVERY WILL BE DEEMED MADE ONLY WHEN ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY DFK. IF DELIVERY IS BY MAIL, REGISTERED MAIL WITH RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED, PROPERLY INSURED, IS RECOMMENDED. IN ALL CASES, SUFFICIENT TIME SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO ENSURE TIMELY DELIVERY.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)

- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S.

trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 3 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships above.

What is FATCA reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3 and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note. ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or “doing business as” (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity’s name as shown on the entity’s tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a “disregarded entity.” See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner’s name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner’s name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity’s name on line 2 “Business name/disregarded entity name.” If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box in line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box in line 3.

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the name on line 1 is an LLC treated as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes, check the “Limited Liability Company” box and enter “P” in the space provided. If the LLC has filed Form 8832 or 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, check the “Limited Liability Company” box and in the space provided enter “C” for C corporation or “S” for S corporation. If it is a single-member LLC that is a disregarded entity, do not check the “Limited Liability Company” box; instead check the first box in line 3 “individual/sole proprietor or single-member LLC;”

Line 4, Exemptions

If you are exempt from backup withholding and/or FATCA reporting, enter in the appropriate space in line 4 any code(s) that may apply to you.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

A—An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a) or any individual retirement plan as defined in section 7701(a)(37)

K—A broker

L—A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947(a)(1)

M—A tax exempt trust under a section 403(b) plan or section 457(g) plan

Note. You may wish to consult with the financial institution requesting this form to determine whether the FATCA code and/or exempt payee code should be completed.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on this page), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, or 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer.
